Sub: Invitation to attend the Seminar on Skill Development in Uttar Pradesh Issues, Challenges and Opportunities at PHD House, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow on 6th May 2013.

Dear Principal,

As you are aware Uttar Pradesh is the second biggest economy in the country. The state enjoys distinguished place in industries like handcraft, IT & ITeS, hospitality among others. The Government has launched several schemes to promote education and skill development of youth. Through targeted training across CBSE Schools, ITIs, VTPs and other interventions can benefit 100 million young people beaming with energy. The need is to channelize the energy by skilling them and making them employable.

In this backdrop, CBSE along with PHD Chamber of Commerce and Industry is organizing one day Seminar on Skill Development.

Objectives of the Seminar:

- The seminar would provide a platform to CBSE Schools, Vocational Training Providers, ITIs and organizations in the domain of skilling to interact and get solutions.
- To discuss existing skill development process in different districts and issues associated with each district which needs to be rectified.
- To bring out some suggestions / recommendations to improve the existing skill development practices followed in the State and bring into light some innovative strategies which would help in wider promotion of this sector.
- To provide a better overview of imparting different vocational courses in CBSE Schools and ways to improve and enrich the skilling process linking with employability.

Therefore, you are requested kindly to attend the aforesaid seminar along with one or two teachers at PHD House, Gomti Nagar, Lucknow on 6th May from 10 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. to get an overview and participate in deliberations. Registration can be done by sending e-mail to jatinder@phdcci.in with a copy to pocbse@gmail.com before 4th May 2013.

With Regards.

Yours Sincerely.

Dr. Biswajit Saha
Associate Professor &
